Treaty Traders and Investors: E-1 and E-2 Visas

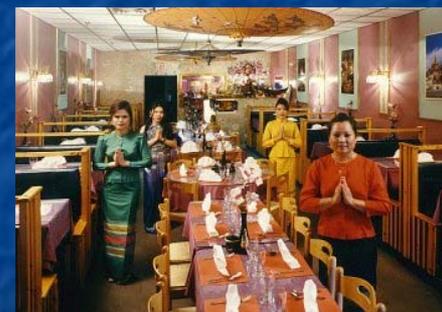

E-1: Treaty Trader

Trade in goods or services between Thailand and the U.S.

- (1) Trade must constitute an exchange;
- (2) Trade must be international in scope; and
- (3) Trade must involve qualifying activities.

E-2: Treaty Investor

Personal or corporate investor in a U.S. business providing a good or service

Intracompany Transferees: L-1A and L-1B Visas

“Intra-company transferee” means an alien who, within three years preceding the time of his or her application for admission into the United States, has been employed abroad continuously for one year by a firm, corporation, or other legal entity or parent, branch, affiliate, or subsidiary thereof, and who seeks to enter the United States temporarily in order to render his or her services to a branch of the same employer or a parent, affiliate, or subsidiary thereof in a capacity that is managerial, executive, or involves specialized knowledge.

Some Examples

- A multinational corporation, with subsidiaries in Thailand and the U.S., transfers a managing director from Thailand to the U.S.;
- A Thai company transfers a specialized engineer to its wholly-owned U.S. subsidiary;
- A U.S. company transfers the Thai Vice President of its Thai subsidiary to the U.S.
